

LPFM can not be heard in mountain towns, even one such as El Paso, TX. I can't pickup the local university station. I do listen to a not-for-profit station (KLOVE-89.5) via an FM translator and I do not want to lose this valuable station. Please don't take one step forward and two steps backwards, as government agencies sometimes do.
Thank you.